Who's sleeping in the little bed? How does the tower grow taller? In this bright-colored playbooks, toddlers from the age of 12 months get to discover and name many different things of their world!!

Ring the bells!

- Board book with rattle sound

There is a lot to discover in this book for toddlers! Colorful illustrations are depicted on every double page, showing objects of the everyday life of babies. The bells included in the spine make it a great toy for babies!

Animals coming to life!

Each double page introduces children to a new animal: typical traits are described and a touch-and-feel element as well as a sound element make animals come to life!

- Touch-and-feel elements, realistic sounds and high-quality photographs
- Series encompasses many different themes

Soferl is a young girl from Vienna coming from a poor family. One day, as she passes the theater, she discovers a poster for the premiere of Mozart's "The Magic Flute". She decides to earn the money for a ticket by selling apples in front of the theatre. The story of this book takes Soferl and the reader on a wonderful journey into the world of opera, where — based on beautiful illustrations and an easy-to-understand language for children — one of the most famous operas by W. A. Mozart 'The Magic Flute' can be experienced.

Essentially best sisters!

Essentially best sisters
ISBN 978-3-8458-2138-2

Mimi and Flo live in a farm with mom and dad, their cat and two little rabbits Bolle and Knolle. Today they are quite in a bad mood: they won't get the little brother they've asked for, and no cars are passing by to entertain them because it's Sunday ... Until something finally happens ...

Roadtrip with grandpa!

From the author of
"Essentially best sisters"

Jonas is 9 year old and not quite as brave as he dreams to be. He pictures himself saving his family from a house on fire, when really he jumps at the sound of every little creaking noise in the house ... Yes, Jonas would like to be braver and not being afraid of giant Gorillas, swimming lessons or maths. But first of all, he wants to enjoy his holidays with grandpa! Hippy grandpa Franz are taking Jonas and his little sister Marie on a roadtrip to Italy — and grandpa promised: there won't be any gorillas there!

It's All Easy

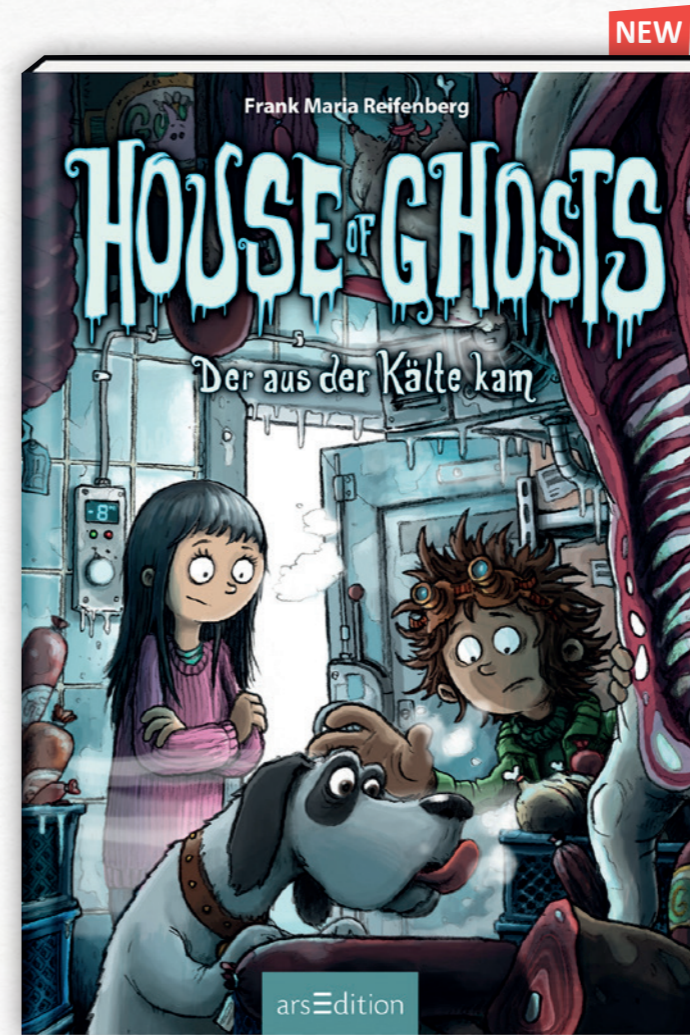

Isabella, nicknamed Easy by her family, travels to Cologne every holidays to her father's. After her parent's divorce, Isabella moved with her mother to Berlin and traveling back and forth became a habit. But when she sees her father waiting for her at the train station with her new girlfriend Annette and her children, her world suddenly collapses. She decides to do everything she can to separate her father from Annette with the help of Jamie, Annette's oldest son.

Ghost stories to read alone!

Melli just got used to living with the ghosts of the house her family inherited when she finds out her family might have to move out. The greedy mayor Adelheid Wiesendübel tries by all means to acquire the property and destroy the villa. But destroying the villa would mean destroying the door leading to the other side and all the ghosts would be left without a place to live! Melli and her friend Charlotte are quite busy trying to change their fates... not to mention that the ghost Aldwyn lost his way and ended up in the butcher shop, scaring everyone willing to buy a piece of meat!

Discovering our Nature

- Many pictures, facts and extra-knowledge
- Over 30 blossoms and leaves shown
- Provides practical tips for collecting

NEW

Thanks to this herbarium for little scientists, blossoms and leaves can be classified once dried. The scrapbook has enough space for over 30 different species: from leaves of the oak tree, to the copper beech, a forget-me-not or a corn poppy. A factsheet on each different plant gives many information and tips about collecting and pressing them.
